

Macbeth Expository Essay Assessment good intro need to mention that the play is about the play Macbeth clear thesis - need to sharpen focus of the thesis insightful ideas some appropriate examples, well explained some good transitions that reflect patterns, connections, logic conclusion that ties thesis to larger themes in the play hard to see your pattern clear focus not complete appropriate integration of quotes from text No - need to set up each quote first proper mechanics, spelling, usage clear, sophisticated sentence structure on good word choice for the most part

For the sake of scoring the essay, each of these aspects will be worth ten points. Please pay attention to the things that you did well as well as the things you need to work on. I hope this is helpful to you and I encourage you to have a conference with me about this paper before you rewrite it. You may submit it for a higher grade by _____

Paper C

Process B-

There are good ideas here, but they are not completely worked through. Is it one of intensity, darkness, overcoming light? What is the relationship? Be clear about it and make sure each paragraph represents one specific point in the interaction of light & dark ok