

power. Someone who thinks evil must never show himself, but will still try to act out his deeds. Then it is also saying that evil can be temporarily stopped but never completely ended. Saturn was banished from heaven but was still permitted to roam the earth. Even though Macbeth's was killed, we must assume that his evil desires will live on because it was said, by the witches, that Banquo's heirs will become king. Due to the evil nature of the witches, it is assumed that it will be non-violently, because of this it could be said that Macbeth's evil lived on in the spirit of Banquo's heirs.

She now is saying that once someone becomes evil, it is more impossible for them to turn away from it. Evil has consumed Macbeth's life and has gone to total night. Macbeth, there is no returning for him anymore.

I: i: 23-25 / Macbeth has come to check on Lady Macbeth because she is acting strangely as he sleep due to her horrible dreams.

The light signifies that he wants to be good and doesn't want to be consumed by the evil & darkness. Throughout the scene she battles w/ good & evil, darkness & light, and herself.

I: ii / The Doctor comes to treat Lady Macbeth and finds that he does not have the power to do anything for her. Says that she requires supernatural/spiritual help. What is interesting about this scene is that Shakespeare separates dreaming from sleeping. Throughout the play, Shakespeare was sleep as a time of peace and a time to get away, otherwise known as death's counterpart. During this time he uses dreams for something completely different, a time of restlessness & mind dead thoughts.

macbeth change 5

Portia's night is portrayed as a time of evil and all evil thoughts & deeds occur.

day is seen as a utopia and it brings sleep in peace but dreaming is witnessed & guilt filled.

Theme: Shakespeare uses the images of night and day to portray evil and night and to show how Macbeth becomes more corrupt over the course of the play.

Shakespeare uses night and day to contrast death/evil and life/good

I - Night

a. paired w/ darkness b. houses evil c. consuming

(fire/light is usually consuming but in this case darkness is)
